

MR. AND MISS 1956 have only one more day to reign, for starting at midnight tonight a new contest is on to name Mr. or Miss 1957, sponsored for the Cathedral City area between Thunderbird and Araby Point by the Cathedral City Area Business Association. Ricardo and Raphaela Gomez, twin children of Mr. and Mrs. Jesus Gomez of Crossley Tract, were the winners last year, being born Jan. 4. They received a large number of gifts, as will the winner this year. (Desert Sun Photo).

11 Killed, 26 Injured in AF Crash

Air Transport Carried Military Group, Dependents

MCGUIRE AFB, N.J., (AP) — The Air Force said today 11 persons were killed and 26 injured when a C121 Military Air Transport crashed and burned while attempting to land at Dhahran, Saudi Arabia Sunday.

An Air Force announcement said the 26 injured were in "good condition" at a Saudi Arabia hospital.

THERE WERE 37 persons aboard the $1.9 million Super Constellation when it crashed at 3 p.m. one mile east of the U.S. air base in Dhahran.

An Air Force team was to fly from the United States this afternoon to investigate the crash.

The four-engine plane carried about 54 persons when it left McGuire AFB Dec. 28 for the journey to the Azores, Tripoli in Libya and Dhahran. The flight originated from Charleston, S.C., Air Force Base with a crew of 11.

THE CRAFT DISCHARGED a number of passengers at the Azores before taking off again for Tripoli. Earlier, a Military Air Transport Service spokesman said the plane carried "military personnel and dependents, but more military than dependents."

Names of the dead and injured were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

The plane is believed to have started its landing approach when it crashed.

Youth Confesses Starting Fire At San Fernando

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A 17-year-old Sylmar youth has confessed starting a brush fire in Weldon Canyon near San Fernando, police reported today.

Officers said the youth, Freddie Garcia, admitted that he threw a burning pair of gasoline-soaked trousers into dry brush Sunday night to get revenge on a rancher who prevented him from hunting on his property.

THE RANCHER was identified as Duane Coffey, of San Fernando. Young Garcia said Coffey took his gun away from him.

Residents in the area told officers they saw two men in a tan car stop and throw the pants over a fence. Their quick action in putting out the fire was credited with preventing another disastrous fire.

Bogus $20 Bill Passing Tried

Police received two reports Sunday of an attempt by a man to pass a bogus $20 bill.

The first call came from the Outpost Grocery on Ramon Road about 2:25 p.m., and the second call was from the Desert Sands on Avenida Olancha, at 3 p.m.

Both places refused to accept the bill, and local police notified the county sheriff's office that the man might try their area.

Young to Attend Optimist Meet

Robert W. Young, governor of District 14, Optimist International, will attend the weekly luncheon meeting of the Palm Springs Optimist Club at the Del Tahquitz Hotel Wednesday noon, President Sam Black announced today.

All Optimists are asked to be present.

Tramway 'Death' Tops News of '56

Palm Springs in 1956 experienced a year of progress tinged with disappointment—with perhaps the latter holding sway over the feelings of residents although not reflecting in any way upon the growth of the town.

Home construction was at a record rate, businesses were prospering and increasing in number with taxable sales at an all time high, and overall development was surprising to even the most optimistic—yet, the Tramway project of the San Jacinto Mountain Park Authority died; at least temporarily, with members of the board, proponents of the multi-million dollar tourist project for more than 10 years, acting as unwilling pallbearers.

THE LATTER, THE refusal of the California Parks Commission to approve a new contract with the Authority for use of the San Jacinto wilderness area, and thereby sealing the fate of the Tramway barring a miracle, although occurring late in the year, far surpassed any other news story in a year of big news!

Second biggest story in a year that counted murders, an increasing number of tragic accident deaths and construction of a new city home, could only be the amazing construction and development of the desert area. The total construction of last year was passed long before the year ended, with record after record being set day after day during the last few months.

The city hall itself was realization of a dream of many people, as it replaced temporary quarters established in army barracks at

Supervisors To Consider Area Zoning

Riverside County Supervisors, meeting at 9 a.m., Wednesday, due to the New Year's holiday, will consider the recommendation of the county planning commission to extend interim zoning in the Thousand Palms district, as one of 10 things on its 35-item agenda affecting the desert area.

Other planning commission recommendations to be considered are: Acceptance of portion of Avenue 40 in Rancho Mirage area; acceptance of portion of Cork Hill Road in the Desert Hot Springs area; acceptance of portion of Jackson Avenue in Thermal area; acceptance of Pine Meadow Lane in San Jacinto Mountains.

Two requests will be considered, extension of agreement on Indian Wells Country Club subdivision, and refund of tax bond on Desert Park Estates No. 6 subdivision.

A hearing will be conducted at 10 a.m. on a petition to abandon a portion of West Veldt and Mesquite Lane in the Rancho Mirage area, and the board will receive notice of a hearing in regard to protest of issuance of alcoholic beverage licenses in the Idyllwild area.

The board will hear a resolution from the Thousand Palms Chamber of Commerce relating to off-street parking requirements in unincorporated areas, and is expected to disregard it, as it has other similar communications in the past.

West's Diplomats Boycott Party Hosted by Kadar

BUDAPEST (AP) — U. S., British and French diplomats today boycotted a New Year's diplomatic reception given by Hungarian Premier Janos Kadar's government.

The boycott was staged by senior Big Three diplomats as the Hungarian underground called for a "black" New Year's Eve in defiance of the government and in memory of the thousands who died in the uprising.

Youth Center To Show Game

Carl Plate, director of the Youth Center, announced today that the two television rooms at the Center would be open tomorrow from 1 p.m. until five, to allow boys and girls to watch the Rose Bowl football game and the finals of the Rose Parade.

Saarlanders Celebrate Today, Back in Germany

SAARBRUECKEN, Saar (AP) — Jubilant Saarlanders staged village parades today to celebrate their return to the West German republic after 11½ years of French control.

The tiny territory, caught for 40 years in a tug-of-war between Germany and France will return to Germany at one minute after midnight.

But already some of the 970,000 Saarlanders were jumping the gun to greet the occasion. They began their New Year's Eve celebration this morning and planned to carry it right up until midnight.

Gunfire Burst Hits City Bus In Montgomery

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — A burst of gunfire today struck a city bus driven by the same man whose bus was hit twice in one night last week.

In the latest incident in the sporadic violence stemming from bus integration here, a bullet lodged beneath the driver's seat as driver W. H. Fullilove drove through a Negro section of the city. No one was hurt.

Associated Farmers of California Praise City's Right-to-Work Law

Associated Farmers of California, Inc., today commended the City of Palm Springs on "passing an ordinance for voluntary unionism," as "the right of free choice is the very foundation of American principles."

In a letter to The Desert Sun, Charles E. Gibbs, executive secretary, told of a similar bill being enacted by the State of Alabama, and quoted comments of Governor Persons, made when he signed the measure:

"MAINLY, THIS bill provides that no person shall be denied the privilege of working because he does not belong to a labor union and that no firm shall be forced to deduct union dues from the salary of a worker . . . In my opinion, all of our labor unions will be far

Ike to Call For Balanced Budget in '57

Taxes to Remain at Present Level, Report

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today outlined to Republican congressional leaders an administration legislative program based on a balanced federal budget and maintaining taxes at present levels.

Mr. Eisenhower and his top aides met with eight GOP leaders of the House and Senate for a day-long preview of the program which the President will submit to the Democratic controlled Congress convening Thursday.

THE CONFERENCE, in the Cabinet room of the White House, was recessed for lunch, but was scheduled to resume later in the afternoon. Mr. Eisenhower will meet with both Democratic and Republican congressional leaders Tuesday.

Secretary of Treasury George M. Humphrey and Budget Director Percival Brundage briefed the congressional leaders on the tax and budget outlook at the morning session.

WHITE HOUSE Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said Humphrey and Brundage reported that "continuing economies in the operation of the government, coupled with no loss of current revenue, would result in a continuation of a balanced budget."

"The main subjects under discussion this morning," Hagerty said, "were the budget, the further development of the domestic atomic energy program, school construction, highways, civil rights, and the proposed amendments to the immigration and naturalization act."

Citizens Raises Interest Now To 3 Per Cent

Citizens National Trust & Savings Bank of Riverside will raise its rates on savings another ½ per cent to 3 per cent, effective on Jan. 1, Elden Smith, president, announced this morning.

"Dec. 26, ahead of other banks in California, we announced that Citizen's rate would be 2½ per cent. We did so because we felt an obligation to pass on to our depositors the higher earnings the bank is beginning to realize from loans and investments."

THE WEATHER

Desert Area Forecast: Variable high cloudiness but mostly sunny through Tuesday. Slightly cooler today. Windy in north portion Tuesday. High today 55-65 in upper valleys and 65-75 in lower valleys.

TWO MEN ESCAPED serious injury and possible death yesterday when their Cessna 120 had its engine stop over San Geronimo Pass, and they crashed while making a forced landing at Palm Springs Oasis, new subdivision development north of the Village. Above is the wrecked plane where it came to rest 75 feet from a model house, after its wing had struck a trailer home parked adjacent to the house. (Desert Sun Photo).

Highway Toll Runs Half of Christmas Week

By UNITED PRESS

Traffic deaths for the New Year's holiday period today were running at about half the rate of the recent Christmas holiday, which set an all-time record.

A United Press count of 9:30 a.m. PST showed 231 persons dead in traffic accidents since 6 p.m. Friday.

ANOTHER 25 DIED in fires, 4 lost their lives in plane crashes, and 49 were killed in miscellaneous mishaps for an overall holiday toll of 309.

Texas led the nation with 25 traffic deaths. California had 20, Pennsylvania 18, Michigan 13 and Ohio 10.

Drunk Driving Warning Issued By Police Chief

Chief of Police August G. Kettmann issued his New Year's Eve warning this morning and said that "drunk driving will not be tolerated in the Village over the New Year weekend."

He said that all night clubs would stop serving at 2 a.m., and that if anyone was feeling good from celebrating, to take a cab home. He added that Tanners was putting all available cabs at the disposal of the public.

All police cars will be put into service, and foot patrol will be doubled.

"Anyone who is stopped for drunk driving will be jailed," the chief said.

Pilot Says 'Someone Was Up There Looking After Us'

"We weren't scared . . . we felt we were being looked after and we were sure we could make it."

This was the comment yesterday by two escapees from a wrecked airplane at the Palm Springs Oasis subdivision north of the Village, and witnesses to the semi-crash agreed that the two men, Robert Broadbudd, 21, Ingelwood, and Art Thistle, 45, Torrance, were right—there was someone looking after them.

BROADBUD, A student at the University of Redlands, pilot of the plane, was uninjured. Thistle, co-owner of a welding shop, suffered a laceration on his right arm and face, and required only emergency treatment at Desert Hospital. Both are pilots, with Broadbudd having 100 hours air time, and Thistle 50 hours.

It is believed that Thistle was injured when, as the plane was coming to a stop, the door on his side flew open and he partially fell out, dragging on the ground for a few feet.

THE TWO MEN were en route here shortly before noon in a rented plane from Acme Flying Service in Torrance, when over the Pass at 7,000 feet the plane's carburetor carbonized or iced, and the engine quit. They glided to the desert canyon and attempted to land on Highway 111 but the plane was too high, so they circled and attempted a landing on the subdivision road.

As one wheel hit the pavement the landing gear broke, and they lost control and a wing of the plane struck the top of a trailer parked next to a model home. Inside the trailer was Mimi Roberts of Beverly Hills, who was at the sink securing a glass of water. She described the impact as a "bomb going off," and hours later still was visibly shaken by the incident although no damage was done inside the trailer, and very little to the outside.

AFTER THE IMPACT with the trailer, the plane spun around, traveled about 75 feet down the road and came to rest in the desert sand.

Witnesses to the accident were Carl Berkhout, property agent, Joseph Zollner, Jr., and Joseph Zollner III, of Pasadena.

The newspaper will be back on its regular publication dates after tomorrow, and will continue to publish as a daily newspaper throughout the year.

A wish for a happy and prosperous New Year is extended to all Desert Sun readers, from the staff.

Police Hunt Check Passer

Local police today are continuing their search for a woman who passed three bogus checks for a total of some $330 during the past two days.

The checks were reportedly stolen from the Turquoise Villa, and the name of the hotel owner, Jack Schwartz, was forged to the checks. According to police, five blank checks were taken.

Two Small Fires Reported Here

Two small fires were reported to the local department yesterday, one a wall furnace at the Ambassador Hotel which did only minor damage, and the other at the Biltmore, where an exhaust fan in the kitchen burned out. The small truck rolled on both fires.

Passes 1955 Record by $4 Million

1,111 Permits Issued in Year, 775 Dwellings

The City of Palm Springs today closed the books on the biggest building year in resort history, shattering past records with a thumping $13,939,434 worth of new construction.

Last year's record high of $9,803,862 toppled under the weight of 1,111 building permits logged at the city building office in 1956.

The 1956 building boom hit new highs in almost all categories. Records for the year listed 775 new dwellings, including apartments and homes, 28 new stores, and 247 new swimming pools.

WITH A TOTAL of 1,246 pools, the city now averages about one pool for every 10 citizens.

The building year ended today as clerks tallied $1,006,600 worth of building permits for the month of December alone. Last permit of the year was filed by Jack Meiselman for a three-bedroom home at Palm Lane subdivision.

In a breakdown of the year's building figures, the ledger shows $6,490,500 was doled out for 357 new Palm Springs homes. Another $650,500 was spent on 28 stores.

It marked a whopping increase over 1955, when builders filed permits for 506 dwellings, including apartments and homes, valued at $6,561,000, which was almost as much as the entire building total of 1946.

THE FIRST POSTWAR boom year for the resort counted $6,600,000 worth of city building. Apartment and home units combined in 1956 for a total of $8,785,560.

In the final month of the year, the city issued 96 permits. Of these, 43 were marked for dwellings, valued at $721,000.

Sixteen dwelling additions and alterations accounted for $36,200 of the month's building total, while 12 trailer ramadas tallied $29,100.

HOTELS MARKED three additions, worth $13,800. A dozen swimming pools, worth $53,000 were added to the city, while five new apartments, involving 31 units, scored $125,500 on the record books.

Three commercial additions in December carried an evaluation of $20,000. One apartment addition, valued at $3,000, and one warehouse, costing $5,000, filled the bottom line of the ledger page as the city closed the books for 1956.

What about 1957? It should be even bigger than '56, according to the experts whose crystal-ball prognostications on the city's building future have yet to fail.

Their prediction about the city's future: "It'll get bigger — a lot bigger."

DeLuxe Park
By VIRGINIA DAVIS

The Annual Christmas dinner at De Luxe was another festive occasion dominated with a spirit of friendliness and fun.

Dr. Dan Perry, emcee and chairman of the dinner and entertainment committee, was said to have surpassed any previous Christmas dinner at De Luxe in the capable and effective manner in which it was directed and managed.

The food was wonderful, and the tables were decorated in a floral decor of red and white under the artistic direction of Bea Fautz. The tables were streamlined with red ribboned crepe paper and lighted by the soft glow of a myriad of red candles, banked with sprays of red berries, a potted poinsettia gracing the center of each table.

SERVING ON THE Food Committee were: Marie Newman, Becky Ericson, Maude Campbell, Rella Vercoe, Evalyn Cox, Alice Hendershot, Gertrude Mellus, Clara Wheeler, Nona Ralph, Madge Perry, Mrs. Ostring, Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. Hughes, and many other ladies who assisted as chairmen of sub-committees.

Alice Hendershot opened the program with a prayer of thanks.

Following dinner, Ruth Brisbin, Lou Laursen and Mrs. McKnight sang "White Christmas," with Art Newman at the piano and all joined in more songs accompanied by his spirited music.

Later in the evening a group gathered around the piano, singing all the old-time songs to the music of Mr. McKnight. Others relaxed around the fireplace in the lounge enjoying conversation with their neighbor.

MANY ARE entertaining friends and relatives during the holidays at cocktail parties and dinners. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lent hosted a group of fourteen Sunday at 4 o'clock cocktails followed by dinner. Those present were: Dr. and Mrs. Ray Schutt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heath, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Herndon.

Christmas Eve Mr. and Mrs. Fred Herndon had a few friends in for cocktails and a buffet supper. Among the guests were: the Heaths, Lents, Campbells, Hecks and the Schutts.

BUZZ BROWN, of San Diego, one of the well-known square dance callers of the West, will be guest caller at De Luxe, Friday, Jan. 4.

The dance will start at 8 p.m., and all square dancers of the area are invited to attend.

He has called for square dances since he was 9 years old, and has made a number of records of his calls. One of his most popular records is "Poor Little Robin."

A CLASS in non-fiction writing, with Dora Tenyson, well-known trailer magazine writer, as teacher, will have its first class meeting Thursday, Jan. 3, at 10 a.m. in the clubroom at De Luxe.

This class will be open to the public but will be limited in number. Those interested are asked to be present at the first class.

Ramon Park
By Lyla Plumb

Dropping in at Ramon before Christmas you would have found Marvel Holman on her knees putting the finishing touches on the Christmas tree to the tune of music. Ramon's tree was a revolving musical tree, playing Christmas music.

At 2:30 Thursday the Guys and Dolls club had its Christmas party, each bringing an exchange gift. Santa Claus (Johnny Strite) distributed the gifts and the fun began when they opened them.

THE REGULAR Friday evening waltz party drew a capacity crowd, with Rose Sykes at the piano, and Harry and Vesta Read were toasted on it being their 48th wedding anniversary.

Christmas Day six Marines were guests of Ramon for dinner, at which 166 guests were present. Mr. Dudley led the Christmas carol singing and Miss Blankenship sang "White Christmas" and "Counting Your Blessings." Mr. and Mrs. Anderson cooked the dinner and Mrs. Coburn and her assistants served.

The highlight of the evening was Rose Sykes, who went from table to table singing, with appropriate remarks for each one. Dancing continued throughout the evening to the music of Rose Sykes.

Many cocktail and dinner parties were hosted by the residents, among whom were the Smiths, Stevens and the Bernards.

Blue Skies Village
By ROSEMARY HEATH

Blue Skies' Tenants' Christmas Party was a great success. The clubhouse was beautifully decorated and the white Christmas tree in the center of the floor stood stately above some hundred gaily wrapped gifts for the boys at St. Boniface Home in Banning.

The buffet table had an originally designed centerpiece of feathered lights and Christmas images and on its Lazy Susan revolved rum tidbits and brandied fruitcake. To the right of this flaming design was a massive egg nog cake. On the other side a Christmas pink homemade angel food cake billowed in front of a devil's food with whipped cream icing topped with walnuts.

STANDING ALONE on a pedestal on one side of the buffet table, was a cut glass bowl of old fashioned egg nog, and on the other side stood a matching bowl of fruit punch. On the bar were homemade cookies of every kind, Christmas candies, nuts, potato chips, cheese dips with crackers, and servers of cut cake topped with red and green cherries.

Alice Walker entertained at the piano and Rosemary Heath opened the Christmas program, with the singing of "White Christmas," which preceded the singing of Christmas carols by everyone. Mr. and Mrs. Oran McRae's little granddaughters tap-danced and sang several numbers.

HARRY HEATH was the moderator of a "take-off" of the TV panel show "What's My Line." A. F. Edmonstone, Mrs. Walter Emery, Jack Hackett, and Mrs. J. W. Elsworth were panelists and Roy Grayson, Fern Wager, Mina Gaylord, Sally Messmer and Dr. Walter Emery were contestants. All of the contestants indicated that their line of employment was of a ridiculous nature.

The next show was called Name's the Same. Mrs. H. P. Laws, Mrs. Oran McRae and Pamela Elsworth portrayed the Andrews Sisters, George Wright was Elvis Presley, Elona Segreaves was Marilyn Monroe, and Bruce Wilcox and Walt Peterson were Bing Crosby and Bob Hope.

ON FRIDAY a group of Blue Skies tenants accompanied Bea and Rosemary Heath to St. Boniface to take the gifts to the boys. Father Nightingale cordially received his guests and all of the little boys were thankful to their newly found benefactors. The priest said that the boys would join him in a special prayer for all of the tenants of Blue Skies.

The sale of the Blue Skies New Year's party tickets is progressing rapidly.

The W. G. Merritts moved their new 40-ft. Spartan 1957 model into Blue Skies on Saturday. Mr. Merritt is an executive with the Los Angeles Examiner.

GAIL and MRS. ROBINSON of Palm Desert have purchased a new 48-ft. Flamingo trailer and will move in tomorrow.

Dr. S. St. Clair had his new trailer brought in the day after Christmas and they are now settled.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pletch from Tulsa, Okla., are visiting the Alexander Clitsomes. Mr. Pletch is president of Aberdeen Petroleum company.

Blatz Honored With Order of St. Gregory

Palm Springs civic leader Val Blatz received word last week from the Vatican which revealed that Pope Pius XII had elevated him to the status of a Knight of the Order of St. Gregory, one of the most valued honors that a layman can receive.

He was the second Palm Springs resident to have the honor bestowed upon him. Author Frank Scully early last week also was notified of the honor.

Blatz, a retired businessman, has been active in local affairs for many years.

The Order of St. Gregory, which is bestowed for civic or military valour in the field of Catholic action, was established by Pope Gregory XVI in 1831 and is considered a signal papal honor.

TRAMWAY SETBACK TOPS '56 NEWS

the airport after World War II. It will be completed in February.

ANOTHER MAJOR disappointment was the defeat of a municipal golf course bond issue, which temporarily stalemated that project, which has been advocated for many years by residents of the Village who realize what a benefit would be to the tourist revenue besides providing a place for Villagers to play golf at a reasonable fee.

Defeated in the same bond issue election was expansion of the sewerage system, which was declared a necessity by city council, and which is scheduled to be placed before the voters again early next year.

Noel Clarke of the Palm Springs Ranch Club at one time offered land to the city for construction of a golf course, (it was refused), and then later in the year announced plans to construct a course of his own.

ADDITIONAL AIRLINE service to the Village proved another disappointment as three companies applied for new service and Western applied for extension of its routes, but all action is still in the traditional red tape of government in Washington, D.C., with no word as to when final action might be taken.

Western itself was affected by a strike early in the year, and Catalina Air Lines stepped in to provide emergency service.

Another big story which rated headlines throughout the year was the campaign for improved telephone service in the desert area by the Palm Springs, Cathedral City, Rancho Mirage, Palm Desert and Desert Hot Springs Chambers of Commerce, The Desert Sun, and other civic groups.

SERVICE WAS improved, with orders for extension of service between Palm Springs and Palm Desert, additional trunk lines, etc., but the ultimate verdict by the California Utilities Commission has yet to be delivered, with interim directions now being followed. Next hearing is set for Jan. 3 and 4, and in the meantime the California Water and Telephone Company has applied for a general rate increase, a step that is likely to bring additional protests at the present time. Cathedral City Chamber of Commerce already has protested the request.

A new golf course came on the scene, Indian Wells, with plans announced for two more, and several others still in the rumor stage.

Race tracks remained in the news for the third consecutive year with current court action pending as to whether or not a quarterhorse track of the Desert

Turf Club should become a reality. Action during the year was a seesaw, with both sides winning in the courts before the present appeal on which a decision is expected soon.

ONE OF THE biggest items, perhaps the one that attracted the most attention nationwide, was the passage by city council of the Right-to-Work law, an action which has drawn criticism from labor leaders across the country. Constitutionality of this ordinance, the first time such an action has been attempted on a city level, is also before the courts, with a decision expected momentarily.

Road construction came in for a large amount of attention during the year too, with completion of an Araby Point bridge, an Indian Avenue overpass, widening of South Palm Canyon Drive along with widening of Tahquitz Bridge, widening of Sunrise Way, and widening of the shoulders of Highway 111 between here and Palm Desert.

OTHER EVENTS of importance were:

Death of Supervisor Homer Varner, appointment of George Berkley as his successor, and the subsequent election of Berkeley.

A $100,000 jewel robbery at Plaza Jewelers, still unsolved.

Establishment of a Multiple Listing Service by the Palm Springs Real Estate Board, together with starting of plans for a permanent home for the board.

Indian land development, report by a Citizens Committee appointed by the Secretary of the Interior, and the hiring of a planning consultant by the Tribal Council.

Cabazon's attempt to annex land near the city limits of Palm Springs, unsuccessful.

TWO AIRPLANE crashes, one at Whitewater, another at La Quinta, five killed.

Search for two-and-a-half year old Virginia Gardner, who was missing overnight, found unharmed underneath a porch where she had sought refuge during a 60 mile per hour wind.

Customary vandalism of Easter Week high school and college student visitors, with the Palm Springs Hotel and Apartment Association now having a committee to check into this problem.

Special census which gave the city a population of 12,225, a 17.7 per cent increase.

Defeat of Earle Strebe in city council election by Leonard Wolf, re-election of Mayor Florian Boyd, Ruth Hardy and Ted McKinney.

Request of Dr. Wallace Muelder, schools superintendent, to have Paul Summers, business manager, reassigned, with no action taken by the board of education.

Injury of George Strebe in an automobile accident.

ENACTMENT OF A city use tax, with proceeds to be used toward paying for a long-fought-for pension system for city employees.

Election of Arnold Runwell over six opponents to the board of education.

Hiring of Dick DeLong as administrative assistant to City Manager R. W. Peterson, another indication of Village growth.

Murder of Mrs. Inez Edna Perkins, 42, with the subsequent acquittal of her husband, Lawrence, of the charge.

Defeat of Jacqueline Cochran Odlum by J. S. Saund, her Democratic opponent, for the U. S. Congress post vacated by John Phillips.

MURDER OF Ralph Neiss, 37, with David Schultz, 21, sentenced to life imprisonment for the crime.

Starting of broadcasts by KDES, Palm Springs' most powerful station, at 920 on the dial.

Death of Carl Henry Jordan, 8, who died of burns suffered when he was trapped in a car which was accidentally set afire.

Starting of an addition to Desert Hospital to relieve overcrowding during the fall, winter and spring seasons.

Death of Craig Miller, 6, while crossing a street, leading to establishment of the Craig Miller Memorial Safety Fund and the Palm Springs Safety Council.

ESTABLISHING OF the First Federal Savings of Palm Springs.

Appointment of A. Ronald Buton as state treasurer.

Chase of Buck Rogers Searset across the desert by sheriff's posse after he had shot at a deputy and the subsequent killing of him when he answered requests to surrender with gunfire.

Death of Herman Henderson and wounding of Tony Torro in a gun duel.

Establishment of the Desert Press Club of Palm Springs.

AND THERE WERE prominent residents who died, including: E. L. Staculiff, 68, executive vice president of the Palm Springs Development Company; Palm Springs Turf Club and Palm Springs Capital Company; Frederick Cronholm, 72, noted engineer; Oliver McKinney, 78, pioneer resident; Carroll Lynch, 74, pioneer resident; George Heater, 92, noted industrialist and visitor or resident here since the 1920's.

Also David Dunsworth, 59, leader in Veterans work; Clarence Mott Woolley, 93, noted industrialist, resident here for 12 years; Harry Pitts, 72, civic and business leader; Lyle Sanard, 63, former police chief; Ed Hawkins, 41, civic leader; L. E. "Mac" McLaughlin, 54, of McLaughlin Electric; Leo Spitz, 67, retired movie leader; C. H. Henderson, 70, pioneer resident; David H. King, 56 youth leader.

AND VICTOR YOUNG, 56, noted composer and conductor; Leslie Kelley, 65, Cathedral City business leader; Sen. George M. Maypole, 72, former state senator of Illinois, president of Palm Springs Area Democratic Club, and resident here since 1935; Marvin D. Sale, 61, founder of Sale Markets; Dexter Mabrey, 63, civic leader.

And this was only part of all the top news stories. There are many more, important events, human interest—news of every type. But these are representative.

Ed McCoubrey, McDonald Win Parade, Bowl Trip

E. L. McCoubrey, head of Plaza Motors, accompanied by N. K. McDonald, manager, will be among 100 Oldsmobile dealers from throughout the United States who will spend New Year's Day in Pasadena, watching the Tournament of Roses Parade and the Rose Bowl football game. The 100 dealers are winners in Oldsmobile's "Rocket to the Rose Bowl" contest.

Upon arrival in Los Angeles, Sunday, the winning Oldsmobile dealers and their wives were transported to the Ambassador Hotel, where they are guests of Oldsmobile. Today, they are visiting Disneyland.

Tonight, New Year's Eve, the winning dealers will be guests of Jack F. Wolfram, Oldsmobile general manager and vice president of General Motors, and V. H. Sutherland, Oldsmobile general sales manager, at a party in the Coconut Grove at the Ambassador.

Safety Slogan Set for Week

Safety slogan announced for students in the Palm Springs Unified School District this week is "Always walk facing traffic," according to George Bond, superintendent of transportation.

Each week a different slogan is selected, to be repeated by students as they board buses en route to or from school.

Two canon balls from the siege of Yorktown, Va., are still imbedded in the walls of the Nelson House there. The owner himself, American General Thomas Nelson, ordered the shots fired, knowing that Lord Cornwallis was using the house as headquarters.

CHP to Have Roadblocks Up In Area Tonight

LOS ANGELES—The California Highway Patrol warned today that roadblocks will be set up tonight throughout Southern California to apprehend drinking drivers.

CHP officials planned to continue their roadblock campaign despite the fact that the Christmas highway slaughter seemed to have taken a sharp dip.

Officers said that the number of traffic accidents and drunk arrests last weekend was about average.

A CHP box score of deaths, injuries and arrests from Friday noon to midnight last night, showed that four persons had been killed in auto accidents, 128 injured and 71 drivers arrested for drunk driving in six counties in lower Southern California.

Color TV'd Rose Parade, Game Big Attraction

If advance breakfast, lunch and brunch New Year's Day reservations at Palm Springs' Howard Manor are any indication, color TV is still a big draw.

Guests at Bob and Andrea Leeds Howard's fashionable desert hostelry are even deserting Palm Springs' famous sunshine for a teleglor view of the annual Pasadena Tournament of Roses Parade and Rose Bowl football classic via the Manor's dining room color set.

It's one of the few color sets in the desert wilderness noted for minks and Cads and is proving that rainbow shows shouldn't be sold short.

a bargain. Today, more than ever, it's important to know the true value of a bargain. And today, as always, the essence of a bargain lies in the quality of the purchase.

That is why people with sound judgment consider a Savings Account at Citizens a bargain in protection. They know that their funds are provided with the finest safeguards available: those of a strong NATIONAL BANK. These same people now enjoy increased earnings on their funds, without any sacrifice of the bank features which make a Citizens Savings Account the ideal place for reserve monies. U.S. INFLUENCE

(Toronto (Ont., Can.) Financial Post)

Nicholas Monsarrat, the British novelist who has served his country ably at Ottawa, has something useful to say in an article about Canada in the London Sunday Express. He tells the story, familiar to Canadians, of economic progress here and of American interest in this country. "Canada is a wonderful country with a fabulous future," he writes. "It has everything: gold, oil, uranium, wheat, timber, steel and power." The heart of Mr. Monsarrat's argument is that Canadians, while they're constantly subject to American influence through radio, TV, films, newspapers and tourism, "feel, see and hear" practically nothing from Britain.

COST OF LIVING

(Toronto (Ont., Can.) Printed Word)

Anyone with a dollar would have good reason to be indignant if he were short-changed out of sixteen cents.

Yet the truth is, as those who have read the latest Dominion Bureau of Statistics figures on the cost of living know, that $100 in 1949 is worth only roughly $84 today. That is the meaning of the DBS statement that the cost of living index in July reached a new high of 119.1, as compared with 100 in 1949.

Note that the comparison is made by the Dominion Bureau with 1949, not with 1939 or some other relatively remote date. In this past few years of Canada's greatest boom, the individual has been short-changed $16 out of the $100 he banked in 1949.

BACK TO CHURCH (Westby (Wisc.) Times)

Last year the churches in the United States reported a total of 100,162,529 members, representing a total of 2.8 per cent increase, as compared with 1.8 per cent increase in population. This was the first time in the nation's history that more than 100,000,000 persons were affiliated with churches or synagogues.

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

The Battlefront of Europe

WAGENRIED, BAVARIA, West Germany — Has world War III begun? Has it been averted? Has a substitute been found for global conflict?

In and around this refugee camp for fleeing Hungarians, you can find some answers. The wooden barracks here, ready to house 200 persons, were once the quarters of a Hitler anti-aircraft unit which must have killed hundreds of American flyers on their missions to the beautiful cities of southern Germany and Austria.

Half a dozen miles away is the notorious crematorium of Dachau where hundreds of Europeans were used for target practice, or asphyxiated in the gas chambers, and reduced to ashes in the brick furnaces. Today this place of ghastly memories is much as it was 12 years ago except that it is maintained as a public shrine for those who died there at the hands of the last would-be conqueror of Europe.

THE REFUGEES at the Wagenried camp have just been moved here by bus from Vienna and Salzburg, Austria, where they went after crossing the border. The buses move those who choose emigration to America, and are lucky enough to qualify, to the Munich civil airport, where they are enplaned for McGuire Air Force Base, New Jersey. Not all, however, choose to flee to America—and with these we begin to get some answers to the questions posed above.

Yes, I was told by a lean, thin-faced Hungarian who was separated from his 552-acre farm by the Russian collectivists, World War III has begun. He wished, he said, that Americans could understand this, but he holds no resentment for our inability to do so. He expects us to try negotiation, diplomacy, and procrastination. All will fail, he says, and war will come to the whole world just as it has come to the Hungarians.

NO AMOUNT OF non belligerent coaxing and bargaining will budge the Russians from East Europe, he believes, because the Russians spent six million of their own lives to conquer it in World War II. Historically, the Russians have felt—not without justification—that they cannot be safe from invasion unless these East European approaches are secured. Eventually, for the safety of Western Europe, the Soviets must be driven from these conquered lands—and this can only be done by military force.

This man, with these grim convictions, having brought his wife and daughters to relative safekeeping, will stay in Germany and join the war he deems inevitable. His 20-year-old son, when last seen, was shooting Russians in Budapest.

BUT NO, I WAS told by another refugee, the German-born wife of a Hungarian heart specialist, diplomacy will work—it must be made to work. Otherwise millions on both sides will needlessly die. All purpose of a war is lost before the war begins.

She believes (as do all Hungarians, it seems) that broadcasts by Radio Free Europe incited the Hungarians to revolt and promised them military support. But she is thankful (as are all Germans, it seems) that the United States did not send in troops. The more that people saw and still remember of World War II, the less hope they have of bettering their undeniably wretched lives by a repeat performance.

But there is a third possibility other than war and peace. Ironically, the Hungarians are fighting in Budapest and elsewhere by guerrilla tactics which they learned, of all things, from the Russians themselves.

THE ART OF tank-trapping, of homemade Molotov cocktails and the rest were taught the Hungarian youngsters, according to one of my interpreters, by their Soviet masters in apparent belief that the Yanks and NATO were coming. This tutelage accounts for the unbelievable bravery and effectiveness of 15 and 16-year-olds against the Soviet armor.

Strangely, the Hungarian revolt appears to be leaderless; and, this, again, is something new in our times. Instead of an explosion set off by a placed and lighted fuse, this rebellion is a grass fire that is next to impossible to control.

"You will be getting Polish refugees next," the Hungarians sagely remark. They mean that the grass fire will turn into a forest fire and sweep the whole of East Europe. It is something that troops and tanks can't cope with. It is something that could make World War III unnecessary.

great Polish actress. Don't hold your breath.

Except for the father role (which is being offered to both Frederick March and Paul Muni), Fox's "Hatful of Rain" shakes down like this: Don Murray in the part originated on Broadway by Ben Gazzara, Eva Marie Saint in the Shelley Winters role and Anthony Franciosa in the one he created on the Main Stem. . . . In order to get these plum parts, Eva Marie and Tony had to sign for two more pictures at Fox. . . . Grace Kelly dyed David Niven's wife's hair a bright doorknob-brass blonde one dull day on that cruise they took on Ariston's yacht and now Hjordis wishes Grace hadn't.

I HATE TO BLAB but Etchika Choureaux, new star at Warner Bros., isn't 18, as advertised, she's 23. . . . Also Etchika isn't engaged to a French diplomat, as announced. That was to keep the Hollywood wolves away. . . . Eastman's first competitor in the field of processing amateur movies, and still is Technicolor. A battle royal for your business looms.

A line of Errol Flynn's dialogue from his new movie, "The Big Boodle": "To me a chaser is something that goes WITH whiskey, not AFTER women" . . . An upcoming fan magazine yarn about Lex Barker is titled "Who Put the Sex Hex on Lex?" Sounds more like a scandal mag.

Hank Fonda calls his new girl, the Countess Aldera Franchetti, just plain "Affie" . . . Bob Sampson, that fine actor who played opposite Kim Novak in "Five Against the House," is now coddling up to an igloo in Alaska (with Armed Forces Radio).

TV TOPICS: Terry Moore told me she and her mate, Gene McGrath, will celebrate their first anniversary in Las Vegas New Year's Day. Then she added: "Gee, I've never been married this long."

Liberace, who has a sense of humor as big as his smile, laments: "I haven't made enough money out of my movie, 'Sincerely Yours,' to keep me in candles." If Joan Caulfield plays herself in a segment of "The Brothers," as planned, she'll be reunited with Bob Sweeney, who worked with Joan for two years in "My Favorite Husband" . . . "Medic" goes back into production in January without Dick Boone, who's busy elsewhere. . . . George Seitz, Jr., directed Mickey Rooney in his commercial for Cascade. It was George Seitz, Sr., who directed The Mick in M-G-M's "Andy Hardy" series. Dean Martin says his secret ambition is to start a brush fire in Elvis Presley's sideburns.

The Long, Cold Struggle

DR. BENJAMIN GOLDBERG

Sputum Tests in Lung Cancer

Last week in this column we discussed secondary brain tumor growth which had originated in cancer of the bronchial tubes or lung. Today a simple method of detection of cancer of the lung will be described below.

Not too many years ago, a simple method of detection of cancer was devised at Cornell University by one of their surgeons. It involved making a smear from the surface of the suspected area.

THE SECRECTIONS from this area were then placed on a glass, fixed there, and stained and in a fairly large percentage of actual cases of cancer, the cancer cells were seen on the slide. This without removing a section of tissue from the suspected area of disease involvement.

This method of studying the cells is known as cytology. Its application has been extended to areas other than the first which was at the mouth of the uterus.

Within the past twelve years, certain clinics have made this cytologic method of examination applicable to suspect cancer of the lung. All that is necessary is the collection of sputum which is coughed up and not just saliva.

AT THE UNIVERSITY of California Medical School in San Francisco, 10,000 cases have had such examinations made during a 12-year period. In this large group of those who subsequently were diagnosed as having a cancer of the lung and who submitted five specimens of sputum on five different days, 88 per cent were shown and proven to have this type of cancer.

In the hands of experienced workers in this field, and special prolonged training is necessary to teach accuracy, less than 1 per cent of error is found to occur. The sputum must be collected on five different mornings for these examinations to allow of maximum accuracy. Where only one specimen was submitted only 40 per cent accuracy occurred in the diagnosis and with three specimens, 65 per cent.

THE SPUTUM MUST also be prepared for examination before it has had a chance to dry which means within one or two hours of its being coughed up.

Cytologic examination is therefore a very simple method in the hands of the experienced and should be used where any individual has a chronic cough which seems to originate in the lower respiratory tract.

Cards for Everyone

Ever since I can remember, the long-hairs have bemoaned the fact that the gentle art of conversation is as dead as the dodo. The murder has variously pinned on such 20th Century innovations as the auto, radio, tee-vee, movies, canasta and bubble-gum (everyone knows he shouldn't talk with his mouth full!).

Nowadays people just talk, talk, talk, or—worse yet—yak, yak, yak, according to the critics, and there is no conversation as the great 18th Century salons (Benjamin Franklin included) practiced it.

Well, sir, all I have to report today is another nail for the conversational coffin. This one may even abolish talk and or yak. Among my Christmas loot is a small pack of cards aimed to do away with a lot of useless conversational sparring or yammering, and transform the user into the strong, silent type.

FOR EXAMPLE, there are three cards eminently suited for use on the outlander with a hard-luck story who tries to put the arm on an acquaintance for a small loan to tide him over till pay day or until his rich, old aunt goes to her reward.

This is always a delicate situation; touch and go, as you might say. You'll be touched and he'll go beyond recall, nine times out of ten. But the card system beats this rap. If the panhandler's story is a real tear-jerker, if, for instance, he doesn't know where his next bottle of gin is coming from, the following card is suggested:

"Your Story Has Touched My Heart. Never before have I met anyone with more troubles than you have. Please accept this as a token of my sincere sympathy."

A CARD SUITABLE for a minor touch reads: "I'd Like to Help You Out. Which way did you come in?"

There is still a third card, on the brusque or fundamental side, that solves the whole problem. It reads: "Before you ask, the answer is NO."

One of my favorite cards takes the earthy approach. It says: "YOU HERE AGAIN?? — another hour shot to hell!"

However, from my point of view, the most helpful and succinct card is one that deals, and adequately and pet peeve — the person who walks up and says, belligerently, "You don't remember me, do you?"

The card says, simply: "I don't make a habit of forgetting faces, but in your case, I'll make an exception."

AS A MATTER OF fact, I would like to suggest another card to meet this same situation. When a nitwit walks up and says, "Who am I?" I would produce a card reading: "I don't know, either. I suggest you consult a psychiatrist."

The possibilities, as you can see, are limitless. For example, there should be a card to deal with the bore who asks, "Is it warm enough for you?" Answer: "Yes, and it soon may be for you."

Now, go ahead. Write your own.

305,000 Fans To See Seven Bowl Games

Rose, Sugar Contests Have Major Interest

By UNITED PRESS
An estimated 350,000 fans will flock to seven bowls Tuesday in college football's annual salute to the New Year.

The top crowd of about 101,000 is expected in the Rose Bowl where Iowa is an eight-point favorite to whip Oregon State. Tennessee, the nation's second-ranked team, is a 6½-point choice over Baylor in the Sugar Bowl, Colorado is a three-point pick over Clemson in the Orange Bowl and TCU a two-to-three point favorite over Syracuse in the Cotton Bowl.

THE FOUR MAJOR bowl games will be carried on national radio and television networks which should give every American with enough strength to get out of bed a chance to share in the fun.

The experts are predicting low scoring games with the exception of the Cotton Bowl, where TCU and Syracuse feature high-octane offenses.

THE CROWD OF about 81,000 at New Orleans will see Tennessee (10-0) and Baylor (8-2) in a rugged defensive test. The Volunteers also feature brilliant tailback Johnny Majors but Baylor's powerful line has held opponents to a mere 6.6 points a game. Bobby Jones and Doyle Traylor run the Bears' offense—with Traylor of doubtful physical condition.

At Miami, the crowd is expected to fall 5,000 to 8,000 short of capacity reflecting fan protest of a match between rather unglamorous teams. Colorado (7-2-1) attracted national respect this year mostly as a result of a loss—27-19 to Oklahoma—while Clemson's record was 7-1-2 and the Tigers were soundly walloped by Miami, Fla. It could turn out to be a waste of a game if only because both teams are so eager to prove they really belong in a bowl in the first place.

EASTERN PRESTIGE will be at stake at Dallas, Tex., where Syracuse (7-1) turns the brilliant Jimmy Brown loose against TCU, (7-3), a team which was strong enough to employ hard-running Jim Swing as a decoy this year. Syracuse is still smarting over that 61-6 Orange Bowl loss to Alabama in 1953 and wants to take it out on the Horned Frogs.

In three lesser bowls, George Washington (7-1-1) opposes Texas Western (9-1) in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex., West Texas (7-2) meets Mississippi Southern (7-1-1) in the Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Fla., and Texas Southern (8-1) plays Prairie View A&M (4-5) in the Prairie View Bowl at Houston, Tex.

Ortiz Favored To Take No. 19

NEW YORK — Young Carlos Ortiz, unbeaten New York lightweight, seeks his 19th straight victory tonight in a year-end 10-rounder with young Gale Kerwin of Valley Stream, N.Y., at St. Nicholas Arena.

It will be televised by DuMont at 7:30 p.m. (PST).

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

NEW YORK — There will be quite a few tears in the cup of happiness tonight.

For when they ring in the New Year, too many sporting favorites won't be on hand. They just didn't make it all the way with the infant 1956 they helped welcome only a year ago.

But they'll be in many a mind when the voices rise in the old refrain "Should Auld Acquaintance Be Forgotten?"

LIKE THE BABE. They all knew her and the world mourned when its greatest woman athlete, Mrs. Mildred Didrickson Zaharias, died in September at the age of 42. President Eisenhower summed it up when he said:

"I think that every one of us feels sad that finally she had to lose this last one of all her battles."

Gone, too, is the tall, spare man who was a baseball legend, Connie Mack, the seemingly indestructible, struck out at 93. But, then, life hadn't been the same for him since the heartbreaking morning 15 months earlier when his beloved A's were sold down the river to Kansas City.

"SHOULD AULD acquaintance be forgotten?"

Who can forget the "Boston tar baby"? He fought the best of them and won the championship of Mexico when he was almost blind. But at 75, Sam Langford finally took the count in a Massachusetts nursing home.

And Bill Cane, the man whose vision "made" the Hambletonian and helped make harness racing a big business. Big Bill, at 81, finally laid down the reins at Miami, Fla., far from the good time track at Goshen, N. Y., which he loved so dearly.

IT CAME EARLY for Norman Red Strader. The bluff red-head who coached for St. Mary's, the San Francisco Forty-Niners and the erstwhile New York Yankees, was cut down by a heart attack at 53.

"Should auld acquaintance be forgotten?"

Racing fans will remember three who took the checkered flag. You see again white-toothed Bob Sweikert sitting happily in victory lane at Indianapolis in 1955 and asking his wife jokingly: "You were worried about me?" He got it against the wall at Salem, Inc. Age 30.

Kansas Stays On Top of U.S. Cage Ratings

North Carolina
Second, Cuts
Lead of Leader

NEW YORK — Tournament championships kept the same four teams atop the weekly United Press national basketball rankings today and enabled Louisville, winner of the Bluegrass Tournament, to drive into fifth place.

Kansas, which won the Big Seven Tournament at Kansas City in impressive style, clung to the No. 1 spot in ratings by the United Press Board of Coaches despite a slightly-reduced vote.

NORTH CAROLINA, victor in the Dixie Classic, held second place and cut Kansas' lead from 58 points to 46. Kansas dropped from 28 first-place votes to 27 while North Carolina picked up from three to four.

Kentucky, winner of the Kentucky Invitational, held third place and Southern Methodist, victor in the Southwest Conference retained fourth, by 71 points over Louisville.

THE CARDINALS, ranked second in the pre-season ratings but now being forced to fight back from early-season failures, succeeded to the fifth spot left vacant by the fall of St. Louis—beaten three times during the past week.

Completing the top 10 in order, were Illinois, Iowa State, UCLA, Oklahoma A&M, and Manhattan.

101,000 TO SEE ROSE BOWL

Two Coaches Decline to Predict Win

Say Puzzled
by Final Mental Attitude of Teams

PASADENA, Calif. — Iowa and Oregon State clash in the Rose Bowl classic Tuesday before 101,000 fans — but Coach Forest Evashevski of the Hawkeyes and Coach Tommy Prothro of the Beavers haven't any idea who is going to win.

"I not only don't know who will win," said Evashevski, "but I can not even give you my starting lineup before kickoff time."

Prothro was just as reluctant to pick a winner.

"I HAVE NO idea," was his answer. The two teams wound up their training Sunday and today will just sit around, rest and attempt to keep the Rose Bowl jitters from gaining the upper hand.

Oregon State finished polishing its attack with a 35-minute workout and Prothro said today that the team is in "excellent physical condition."

"I think the club is improved, too, mentally," he added. "But it is not as high as it should be for a Rose Bowl clash."

EVASHEVSKI is slightly puzzled on the mental attitude of his team, too.

"Physically our boys are in fine shape," he said, "but I don't know what to think about them mentally. They don't seem to be 'up.' However, they were that way before the Notre Dame game and I was sure we would get knocked off." Iowa won, 48-8.

Pettit Scores 41 in 100-93 Win

By UNITED PRESS
The latest attempt to handcuff Bob Pettit, the National Basketball Association scoring champion, has resulted in complete failure.

The six-foot, 10-inch former Louisiana State star whipped 41 points through the cords Sunday night to lead the St. Louis Hawks in a 100-93 victory over the Minneapolis Lakers.

OREGON STATE'S BEAVERS will enter tomorrow's Rose Bowl game as underdogs, but with the strong possibility of being able to engineer an upset due to the above backfield stars, left to right, Joe Francis, tailback Earnel Durden, right half; Tom Berry, fullback, and Gerry Laird, blocking back. Iowa, on its performance during the Big Ten season, will be favored, (International).

Bears Start Hibernation One Day Too Early

NEW YORK — The New York Giants, boasting their first National Football League championship since 1938, today notified their 1957 rivals that they won't stand pat with the squad that handed the proud Chicago Bears their worst playoff defeat.

The Giants humiliated the favored Bears, 47-7, Sunday before 56,836 chilled Yankee Stadium fans and millions of warm television viewers. The Giants wore sneakers on the frozen turf in throttling the team that led the league in scoring this season.

DEFENSE WON the first championship for Coach Jim Lee Howell. Key players on New York's defensive unit Sunday included end Andy Robustelli, halfback Ed Hughes, linebackers Bill Svoboda and Harland Sware and tackle Dick Modzelewski.

After fullback Mel Triplett carried Umpire Sam Wilson and two Bears into the end zone for New York's first touchdown, Robustelli's jarring tackle made Bear fullback Rick Casares fumble and Andy also recovered the ball on the Chicago 15.

Fashionettes

Springs forecast . . . look for violet to be featured in many of the new spring collections, from sports clothes to evening gowns. The Color Association, the national authority which forecasts color trends for the fashion industry, said violet shades will range from pale mauve to deep purple. The association said that the classic gray and navy for spring next year will find a rival in beige.

Slumber note . . . one lingerie designer, Peggy Parnis Hochman of Chevette, decorates a holiday line of nightgowns with rhinestones.

Glamour tip, from cosmetics manufacturer Lily Dache. Surround yourself with your favorite fragrance, when you are entertaining at home. She suggests spraying your living room curtains and upholstery lightly.

More about hemlines . . . the New York Fashion Group predicts daytime skirt lengths by spring will be an inch to an inch and one-half longer. In a recent show of highlights from spring collections, the more extreme "demi-length," just above the ankle, was confined to cocktail and dinner clothes.

A bathing suit with built-in watch made its debut at one recent fashion show. The suit (by Cole) was one piece, in white sueded latex. The watch, placed on the left of the suit, just below waistline, was the only adornment. The maker assured would-be purchasers the watch was waterproof.

For the dog who has everything: A jewel-studded collar to match one worn by his mistress. Jewelry designer Victoria Stone, of New York, first designed dog and owner collars for personal use—she owns a French poodle. But customers asked to buy, so now the collars covered with semi-precious stones are available for $75 and up. The designer also makes a pin, which is a replica of the customer's dog. The pins start at $175 in 14-carat gold, and work up to $1,200 in diamonds. Miss Stone reported sale of several in the $175 bracket "but those at $1,200 are going kinda slow."

Britain's Princess Anne, six going on seven, now has her hair done by a professional hairdresser. Buckingham Palace sources say that the hairdresser who does Queen Elizabeth's hair also attends to the tiny, blonde Princess. Trouble is in keeping Anne still under the drier. The little Princess also is setting a plaid fashion in Britain's younger set. Her tartan kilts are being worn by children her age throughout London. The Princess usually wears the Balmoral pattern—a bright-colored design against grey background.

Designer Mainbocher says he is not a fashion creator who is changing his ideas constantly. The New York stylist said at his recent fashion show, "I have never designed dresses that I intended to cancel in my next collection, a short six months away. Rather . . . I try to achieve new ideas that may have a future . . . and above all, reflect a realistic modern elegance."

Designer Pauline Gordon, who has been re-shaping the American figure for the last 25 years, has decided this nation is growing its own particular brand of the female form. "A distinctly American type of female figure is evolving," says Mrs. Gordon, after comparing the American girl with her counterpart from Berlin and Bangkok. Mrs. Gordon, who bosses her own corset and brassiere company, said the American girl is getting away from the ancestral type of figure and developing into the "rangy-type"—healthy, well proportioned, and long of limb. All to the good," she added. "My latest tour has convinced me the American woman has the world's most beautiful conformation."

Hair style craze . . . every model at the recent National Cotton Council fashion show on the lawn of Gracie Mansion, the residence of New York's mayor, wore her hair in some variation of the French twist. This is the sleek, pulled-back style made famous by the Princess of Monaco.

Schiffs Host Cocktail Buffet

Guests arriving at the Sydney Schiff home on Santa Rosa Friday night, stepped through a front door that had been wrapped and decorated like a Christmas package. Indoors, too, beautiful miniature Christmas trees were used as holiday decorations, as the Schiffs entertained at a cocktail buffet, which offered an elaborate array of attractive and tempting dishes, with several specialties.

Among the guests were the Mel Eatons, Howard Morris, Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Strauss, Commander and Mrs. Maurice Horner, the Jim Felsentals, Mrs. Payne Jennings, Mrs. Lee Frank, Miss Elizabeth Evans, the Burnham Bigelows, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. L. Graves, Mrs. Alexander Marcuse, the Asher Leys, Charles Mendelsons, John Connors, and Co Thornton (Mrs. Thornton was down with a virus).

There's a Way To Keep Flowers Much Longer

The Federated Garden Clubs of New York State recommends a new method for prolonging the life of flowers.

The organization said it is possible, through a special and easy drying process, to keep a bouquet a couple of years.

Here's how the process works: Pick flowers at their peak of perfection to retain form and color. Then fill a large, shallow box with powdered borax. Strip off leaves. Wire each flower by gently pushing the wire into the flower head and through the stem. Then sprinkle each flower lightly with the borax and place head down in borax in the box. Cover completely and leave in a cool, dry place from two to four days, depending on fullness and texture of the blossoms.

Then remove and put in vases without water. Dried flowers also may be used in corsages and hat decorations. These flowers are washable, too. Remove dust by spraying gently with water and let drain.

To keep fresh cranberries, remove any over-ripe or poor quality berries before storing.

A PRE-CHRISTMAS BRIDE was Edith Chenoweth who recited her vows with Hal Joseph at Temple Isaiah on December 23. The bridegroom is assistant city planning director. (Vic Culina Photo)

Hal Joseph Married to Southerner

Married December 23 at 4 p. m. at Temple Isaiah were Edith Chenoweth, daughter of Mrs. Daugherty of Raleigh, North Carolina and P. H. Chenoweth of Atlanta, Georgia, and Hal Joseph. Officiating at the marriage was Rabbi Leon Resenberg.

The bride wore a princess style chantilly lace over white satin with a fingertip veil and carried a wedding bouquet of white carnations. Her matron of honor was Mrs. William (Alma) Wilson. Best man was Herman Ranges.

Taking her nurse's training at City Memorial Hospital at Salem, North Carolina, the bride did post graduate work at Chicago Lying In Hospital and stayed on to become a supervisor in obstetrics. She received her bachelor degree from Loyola University in Chicago. She will be working at the Desert Hospital as obstetrical supervisor.

The bridegroom, who is assistant city planning director for Palm Springs, is a graduate of Antioch in Yellow Springs, Ohio, and attended the University of Chicago.

Following the wedding there was a reception for 30 guests.

Electric Irons Need Pampering

AMES, Iowa (AP)—The life of an electric iron may depend on the care its sole receives from the housewife, says an Iowa State home economist.

Naomi Shank, extension equipment specialist, said the iron needs protection from scratches and dents. Don't scrape off sticking starch with a knife or other sharp tools.

If the iron does collect starch, cool before beginning to clean. Then use a very fine steel wool or damp cloth with non-abrasive scouring powder.

Buff the plate vigorously with a dry soft cloth after working it with steel wool. Then heat it slightly, apply beeswax or paraffin and cool.

Another dry cloth buffing will remove excess paraffin, which will guard against further sticking starch.

Golfing to Theme Next
Family Night

Thunderbird members and their guests are asked to don old-fashioned golfing clothes and dress the part for the next Family Night dinner. It is scheduled for Thursday night and will have a Golfing theme.

Hosts for the evening will be Mr.
and Mrs. Fred Klemp and Janice Chiquino, and they think that knicker and sock and checked caps will be right in the mood for the all-golfing menu. It will start with "Tee-Off Soup," and progress through a salad "In the Rough," a "Mixed Foursome" entree (mixed grill), to "Out of Bounds" dessert, and "Water Hole" coffee.

A special feature arranged for the evening will be a chance exhibition by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ayers of the Arthur Murray Studio. They will really be "stepping out" that night as it is their wedding anniversary.

Preceding the Family Night dinner, the hosts have invited as many as the Klemp house will hold to view a golfing film. Filmed partly at Thunderbird and Tamarisk it is narrated by Bobby Jones, and presents such golfing greats as Ben Hogan and Cary Middlecoff and others equally well-known here. The showing is invitational due to space limitations.

Manhattan's newest custom milliner believes the new hats should have plenty of tilt. Designer Toby Coppock recently opened his own salon, after a 10-year stint with the late Hattie Carnegie and five years with Elsa Schiaparelli. Coppock called his new group the "pliable line" and carried out his theme with hats made to be worn on an angle or follow the slant of the eyebrow.

California casserole recipe which won the grand prize of $25,000 for Mrs. Hildreth H.
Hatheway, Santa Barbara, in the Pillsbury eighth grand national recipe and baking contest.

Coat 2 pounds of veal or beef round steak with mixture of one-third cup enriched flour and 1 teaspoon paprika. Pound mixture into steak; cut into 2-inch cubes.

Brown meat thoroughly in one-quarter cup salad oil or shortening. Transfer to a 13 by 9 by 2-inch pan or large skillet, and add 1 and three quarter cups small cooked onions, 1 pound can.

Combine 1 can cream of chicken soup and 1 can water in skillet used for browning. Bring to boil and pour over meat.

Bake in moderate oven 350 degrees; about 45 minutes until meat is tender. Top with 15 dumplings.

Increase oven temperature to 425; bake for 20 to 25 minutes until deep golden brown. Serve with sauce made by heating 1 can cream of chicken soup and 1 cup sour cream, just to boiling.
For butter crumb dumplings:
Sift together 2 cups sifted enriched flour; 4 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; one-half teaspoon salt and 1 teaspoon poultry seasoning into mixing bowl. Add one-quarter cup salad oil and 1 cup milk. Stir just en-til moistened.

Drop rounded tablespoonfuls of dough into a mixture of one-quarter cup melted butter and 1 cup bread crumbs. Roll to coat with crumbs.
Serves eight.

Ben Reig, the New York manufacturer-designer who won this year's Cotton Award, gives this definition of the well-dressed woman: a woman who wants to look American by being dictated to only by her own individual taste; a woman who adds to this sense of independence, a sense of suitability, a sense of excitement and a sense of quality.

When cellophane bags used in freezing food become brittle, roll them in a wet towel and let stand for several hours. They will absorb moisture and not break when used.

Luncheon Party
Will Celebrate 12th Birthday

A luncheon party at the Biltmore tomorrow will celebrate the 12th birthday of Carol Friedman, who is here from New York to visit her grandparents Mr. and Mrs.
William Friedman.

Enjoying the traditional birthday cake and watching the Rose Bowl game on the T. V. to be set up pool-side, will be Elaine Friedman, Carol's cousin from New York, Bruce and Bob Kaplan, Debbie Rosen and Sheryl Schultz from Long Beach, Carla Black, Marty and Roy Pascal.

Also Douglas and Alice Crocker,
Patty and Lynn Schechter, Jo Jo
Rosin, Mary Lou Ruskin, Larry Nelson, Rollin Levin, Barbara Finerman, Bob Levin and Myra Grone.

The birthday girl's grandparents the William Friedman's will host the party.

Cooked turkey should be stored in the refrigerator. Separate the stuffing from the bird, and wrap or cover each individually before re-frigerating.

Spinks Host
Annual Party
On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Spinks welcomed 75 friends at their annual wedding anniversary Christmas party held at their Smoke Tree home Saturday from 5:30 to 7 p. m.

Mrs. Spinks was radiant in a Christmas red lace dress, in keeping with the holiday season, as she greeted her guests.

Among those enjoying the elaborate buffet were most of the Smoke Tree colonists, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Dollard, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert
Horn from Arcadia and the twins Nancy and Norman, Paul, Michael and Melinda.

The two age groups having the poorest diets are adolescents and adults over 50, according to recent Department of Agriculture studies.

"Happy New Year"

It's a happy time . . . time to say, "All the best to you and yours in 1957" . . . time to look ahead, and to hope with all our hearts that the New Year holds lasting peace. And it's time to look back, too, at the old year, and to thank our friends and patrons, to whose loyalty we owe our progress and growth.

Palm Desert

By GRETCHEN CHEESEMAN
Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Jayne spent the weekend in the desert. They recently sold their home on Ironwood street to the parents of William Holden. The Jaynes now reside in San Clemente.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Price arrived Friday for several days. The Davis' and Prices also lived here at one time. Villa Markley will entertain them, as well as the Jaynes.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Well of Orinda are spending the holiday season at Esquire Apts. The Wells always spend part of the winter season here.

Mrs. Lella Holt is a holiday houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blades. Mrs. Holt and Mrs. Blades are sisters.

The Sun Lodge Colony has been very gay this holiday season. Dr. and Mrs. Graybill and family, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Nickelson of Tacoma, Wash., and Mrs. Nickelson's mother, Mrs. A. French of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hull, Mrs. Edna Harper and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Essery, Mr. and Mrs. Dingman, Bill and Ken Roberts, spending their college vacation with their mother, Mrs. Helen Roberts. The Roberts clan all gathered in Brentwood on Christmas Day. Brian Donlevy and daughter, Judy, spent Monday and Tuesday in the desert.

Mrs. Frank Goodwin, mother of Clarence Goodwin, is spending a week or so with her family.

Christmas Day at Shadow Mountain Club was a real family affair—members and their guests enjoyed the traditional holiday dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fithian hosted a small Tom and Jerry party Christmas morning in their Sun Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cotner departed for Mexico the day after Christmas to be gone about ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Kapp hosted a family holiday party—Hal's mother, Mrs. H. E. Kapp, Don and Mary Alton (Hal's sister) and children, Nancy, the eldest of the Alton family, attends Principia school in St. Louis, Mo., and is home for the holidays.

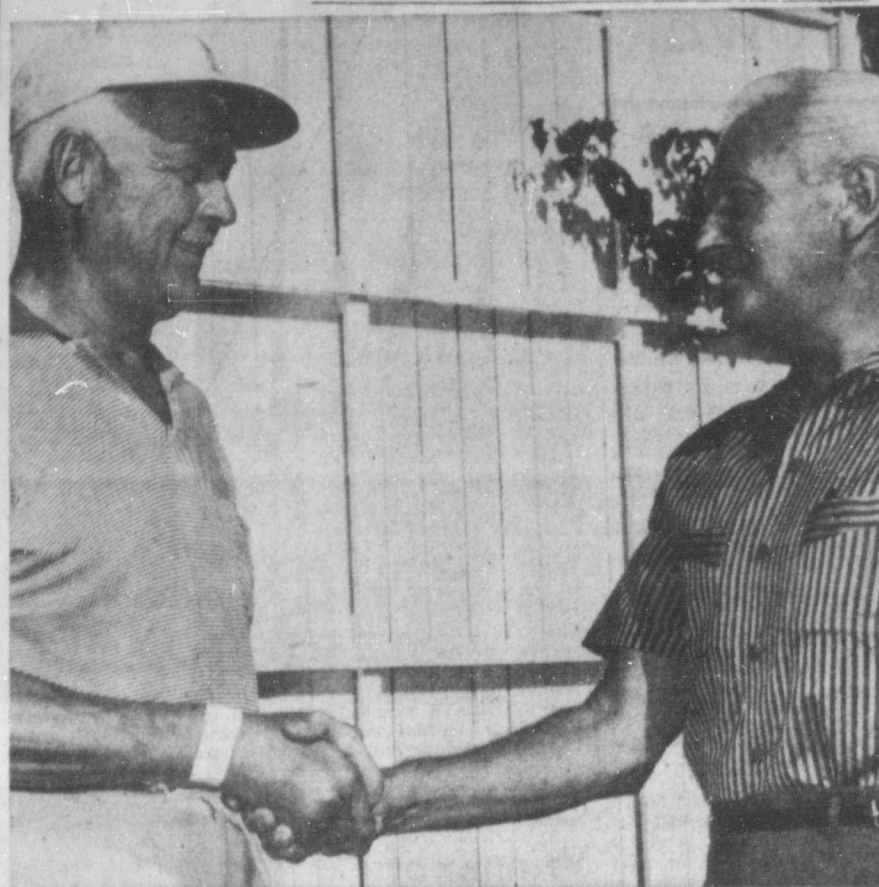

Miss Marcy Schill is spending the holidays with her family, the Ed Schills—she is attending Chaffee in Ontario. Lester Hughes, III, is also a houseguest of the Schills.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt of Sidney, Ill., are living at Acacia Lodge for a few weeks. Mr. Burt is Mayor of his home town. Other guests are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Frantz of La Jolla, Mrs. Doris Powell and Vera Gruncer of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Whalen of Baltimore, Md., are guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coates, at their Palm Desert home.

The Whalens expect to remain for the winter months in the desert.

Mrs. Hudson Werder of Shadow Mountain Terrace has had many guests these last few days, among them Mr. and Mrs. Ira S. Brandee and children, and their friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. George Donnelly and family, D. C. Phinney, Mr. and Mrs. John Eidam, who are watching the construction of their new home on Portola Avenue, also Mr. and Mrs. Pat Rafferty, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gardner and Mr. and Mrs. Clark Drane.

WHEN CHARLIE FARRELL, TV star and Palm Springs Racquet Club owner, recently joined the Automobile Club of Southern California, Ed Nesbitt, the Club's Palm Springs district manager, presented Farrell with a membership card—an occasion which also served to reveal a strong resemblance between the two "sun city" dwellers. (Anderson Photo)

Scotts Plan Home in Area

Charles E. Scott of Palm Desert Sales Company, spent the Christmas holidays with his wife, Portia and son, John Lee, at their home in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Scott plans to join her husband later in the season and the family will make their home permanently in Palm Desert.

Entertain Guests

The Willard Parkers, who this year purchased the Parker's Motel, formerly known as Larrea Lodge, hosted Mr. and Mrs. George Sherman of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Tancer of San Francisco over the Christmas holidays.

Easleys Host 70 Boys From Twin Pines Ranch

Games and swimming, gifts and a chuckwagon high noon dinner provided the entertainment highlights of the annual Christmas party honoring the boys of the Twin Pines Ranch last week, held at the patio home of Mr. and Mrs. James I. Easley, in Palm Desert. Sponsored by the Palm Desert Rotary Club with the cooperation of the Palm Desert Business Women's Club, more than seventy boys attended the gala event, arriving by bus at mid-morning from the ranch camp near Banning.

The party lasted throughout the day with individual gifts presented to the boys and home-made candy and cake enjoyed by all.

Holiday Party Termed Success

The Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce wishes to extend its thanks to all friends and members who so generously contributed to making the annual Children's Christmas party such an outstanding success.

The Chamber also announces that the new 1957 Palm Desert brochures in three distinctive colors are now being distributed.

Rancho Mirage

By JEANE PATANE

Pat and Ricky Kerkorian (Tile Top Tables) spent last week at their studio in the San Fernando Valley, and returned with many tiles of new design for their custom built table shop in Rancho Mirage.

Final details in the purchase of Lee's Cafe, next door to the Shell station on Highway 111, have been completed. The new owners of the former G and C Cafe are Lee Stowell and Eve Evans. During the past year Lee was associated with Dr. Ketchersid, and, before coming to the desert, Lee and Eve operated cafes in the Los Angeles area, and at one time Eve was active in real estate. Both are from Missouri.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Owens Collins on Christmas Day were the Henry Brentons and their daughter, June.

Tonight, the gayest Eve of the year, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Comras will host one of the gayest parties at their home on Tunis Road. There will be dancing, and a festive buffet will be served during the first hour of the Happy New Year. Among the invited guests are the Larry Kirwans, George Millers, Manny Strands, Stanley Speigelmans, Henry Brentons, Jack McCallums, Ted Doaks, and Mrs. Dorothy Parsons, Jack Schwartz and Dorothy's mother Mrs. Harry Wall. Also the Bill Peacocks and Bill Iversons of Cathedral City. New Year's weekend house guests of Howard and Jan are Dr. and Mrs. Morris Neustadt of Encino.

Col and Mrs. Harry McColly hosted Christmas Dinner for their daughter and son-in-law and grandson, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. O'Dell and Lance, at their home on Highway 111. The O'Dells will return to their home in Long Beach after New Year's Day.

Constance Holland, well known ceramic designer, is in Los Angeles on a combined pleasure and business trip. She has just finished an allotment of Chinese design tiles for the new Lulu Room at the Royal Nevada Hotel in Las Vegas, and is now filling an order for Carroll Stupell of New York City, noted designer of table settings with offices on Madison avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Campbell spent Christmas weekend in Los Angeles at the home of Mrs. Campbell's sister, Mrs. Edith Doermann. Mrs. Doermann returned to the desert with the Campbells and this New Year's weekend they are visiting at the home of another sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kalsman in Yuma, Arizona.

Here from their home in Compton to celebrate Christmas Eve with Mr. and Mrs. Al Ames and their children, Pamela and Allen, were Mr. Ames' brother and family, the Nelson Ameses. The two families spent Christmas Day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ames at their home in Sacramento.

Chaplain and Mrs. Jack Wartes and children, Paul and Carol Beth will leave for San Diego tomorrow after being with Mrs. Wartes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Miller, for the holidays. The Chaplain is stationed at the Naval Hospital. Last Friday Mrs. Miller was honored on her birthday with a family dinner and a decorated birthday cake.

Houseguests at the home of Mrs. Marcelle De Vinna for New Year's weekend are Dr. and Mrs. Sanchez Corea and Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Knight, here from San Francisco. They will celebrate New Year's Eve at Shadow Mountain Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Stevens (he is personnel manager of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra) were visiting at the home of the Stanley Speigelmans, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens are friends of the Art Linkletters and were deeply impressed with the beauty of Rancho Mirage.

Mr. and Mrs. James Udall, of Los Angeles and Encino, are selecting furnishings preparatory to moving into their newly purchased home on Mirage Road.

More Than 250 children greeted Santa's arrival at Desert Air Hotel on Christmas Day, receiving gifts. Santa arrived by airplane, as usual, after a morning spent flying over the area during which time he dropped balloons containing invitations to "meet him at Desert Air." Prior to the presentation of gifts to all children, Gail Comras was crowned Miss Christmas Day at Desert Air. (Lee Wenzlick Photo).

Ronald Buttons Here for Holiday

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald A. Button are now in their new home with Mrs. Button's mother, Mrs. Harriet McConnell, with them for the holidays.

Friday night the Buttons invited a group of friends to their home to view colored pictures of Alaska and the Alcan Highway taken by Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Vargas on a recent tour of the northwest. Mr. and Mrs. Vargas are close friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harold O. Wright, Mrs. Button's sister and brother-in-law.

The pictures were particularly interesting due to the fact the former Barbara Button and her husband, Tom McAllister, now make their home in Anchorage, Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Button will leave for Sacramento New Year's Day.

Gala New Year's Eve Set

By all indications the Compass Room of the Desert Air Hotel will be one of the most popular of New Year's Eve rendezvous. Festivities will get under way at 8:45 with a champagne dinner dance, and entertainment throughout the evening.

Among the many guests at the hotel are Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Mylon, who flew in from Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Bradford and family from Stockton, Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Henderson and family of Eureka, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Lambeth and family from Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Starr and family of Palos Verdes Estates, and frequent guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wertheim, who drove out from Cambridge, Mass., for a desert vacation.

HARTFORD, Conn. — If a wasp flies in while you're driving along, don't start swatting. Instead, be "hospitable." It's safer and chances are the insect will depart sooner. The Connecticut State Safety Commission, in issuing this safety tip, said numerous accidents are attributed to motorists who try to drive and fight off insects at the same time.

Frederickson Rites Set for Denver, Colo.

Funeral services for Harold John Frederickson, 48, 2295 East Alejo Road, will be held in Denver, Colorado.

Frederickson died at his home Thursday afternoon following an illness of five days.

A native of Denver, Colo., he was a resident of Palm Springs for nine months, and was a self-employed architect.

He is survived by his wife, Virginia L. Frederickson; father, John F. Frederickson of Denver, Colo.; one son, Jack, of Boulder, Colo.; one daughter, Mrs. Joan Wagoner of Oceanside, and two grandchildren.

Wiefels and Son Mortuary will be in charge of arrangements.

Enough trees were planted in South Dakota in 1955 to make a 13-row shelter belt stretching the 400-mile length of the state.

The Desert Sun Monday, Dec. 31, 1956 14

Bird Given Commendation For Oxygen Saving Invention

Forrest M. Bird, inventor of one of the first new devices in the field of respiratory medicine in the past 60 years, an intermittent positive pressure device, has received congratulatory praise from leading medical universities throughout the nation.

In the words of one university spokesman, "To us it was interesting that this appeared so basically simple and we wonder why it had not been developed long ago. The originality of the device, and in addition, the apparent oxygen saving that can result, should most certainly bring this device to the attention of investigators throughout the world."

THE DEVICE, according to Bird, has only one working part, and controls an exact amount of oxygen to any particular patient. The Bird Oxygen Company, located in Palm Springs, is run by 35-year-old ex-Air Force Captain Forrest Bird, who hires only respiratory patients to assemble his portable oxygen kits.

DR. SEYMOUR M. Farber of the University of California Medical center, in a letter to Bird, said, "we feel that you have approached one of the most important fields of medical needs that now exist. The millions of patients who are now suffering with pulmonary difficulties, will be can give aid to many of these people who are suffering." The manufacturing company for the resuscitator and inhalator is located at the Palm Springs Airport. The parts for the kits are manufactured elsewhere and brought to Palm Springs to be assembled.

OUR NEW YEAR WISH . . .

God be a guest
Within your home
and through the years
May you and yours
In his enriching love abide.

Happy New Year To Everybody
